Nothing Can Defeat Bryan.

George Valentine, a retired business man and prominent Republican politician, of Los Angeles, Cal., is at the Riggs. Mr. Valentine is accompanied by his wife, and is making a trip East for his health.

Discussing the political situation along this Pacific Coast, Mr. Valentine, who is prominent in the ranks of the Republican party in his State, said that there had taken place a most remarkable change of the heart in favor of Bryan, and that the Democratic candidate had excellent chances of carrying California.

"The Republican party seems to be in a bad fix," said the Californian, "and if the Bryan sentiment is as strong in other parts of the country as it is in Los Angeles and California, there is nothing, under the sun that can prevent his election. I know quite a number of republicans personally who will vote for Bryan.

"Labor, whether organized or not, will support Candidate Bryan as a rule. The laboring men, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, are paying the closest possible attention to the views of Mr. Gompers in the matter; they are convinced that he had their interests at heart, and that he is fair and square and honest.

"The Japanese question is by no means disposed of along the Pacific Coast. It is merely dormant, but by no means dead. There is no doubt in my mind but that it will bob up again at the most unexpected moment."—Washington Herald.

Declares For Ben Johnson.

The Breckinridge News, a Republican newspaper, published at Cloverport, announces editorially that it will support Congressman Johnson for Congress. It says:

"Col Ben Johnson made a good clean record in his seat in Congress last session. He was in his place at every roll call. He filled it, too, as very few men have ever filled it for the first term. He took to it like a duck to water. He was there for business and he did business. Pity we haven't had a man like him there for the past twenty years. Our rivers, especially the Ohio, would have been in very much better shape we are sure. Ben Johnson is a worker, he's not an idler, a time killer, but a hard worker. He's been a busy man all his life, in public and private walks. And that's the secret of his success. We need such men to look after our interests, and when we get a man like Johnson we ought to keep him there. They do it in other States, why not in Kentucky? Democrats, Republicans, Independents and good citizens who believe in the man and his works should support Ben Johnson. The News intends to do it with a hearty good will."

Don't Be A Knocker.

If there is any chance to boom business, boom it. Don't pull a long face and look as though you had a sour stomach. Hold up your head, smile and look for better things. Hide your little hammer and try to speak well of others, no matter how small you may know yourself to be. When a stranger drops in jolly him.

Tell him this is a great city—and so it is. Don't discourage him by speaking ill of your neighbors. Lead him to believe he has at last found a place where good people live.

Don't knock.

Help yourself along by becoming popular and push your friend along with you. It's very easy. Be a good fellow and soon you'll have a procession of followers. No man ever helped himself by knocking other people down in business. No man ever got rich trying to make others believe he was THE ONLY, or the only one who knew anything. You can not climb the ladder of success by treading on other's corn. Keep off the corns and don't knock.

You're not "the only." There are others, and they have brains and know something as well as you. There's no end of fun minding your own business. It makes other people like you. No one admires a knocker. Don't be one, but act wise.

In His Line.

An ambitious politician, who has at various times been a candidate for public office, has a son, a lad of eight, who, meditating upon the uncertainties of kingly existence, at last asked his mother:

"If the King of England should die, who would be King?"

"The prince of Wales."

"And if he should die, who would be king?"

His mother turned the question off in some way, when the boy, with a deed breath, said:

"Well, anyway, I hope pa won't try for it."—Harper's Magazine.

The people do not expect enough of themselves. They do not realize that things they see other people do, and envy them the power of doing, they could do themselves if they only tried. So much of what seems to "come natural" to other people is only the result of long continued effort. We may not be able to do as well as they have done, but some measure of success in the same direction is within our power.

Reserved Her Verdict.

A gentleman who was no longer young, and who never was handsome, said to a child in the presence of her parents:

"Well, my dear, what do you think of me?"

The little girl made no reply, and the gentleman continued:

"Well, you don't tell me. Why won't you?"

Two little fat hands tucked the corners of a pinafore into her mouth as she said, archly, in a timid whisper:

"Cause I don't want to get whipped."

How to Cure Liver Trouble

There are usually several ways to do a given thing, but it is the aim with all of us to find the best and shortest way. It is just so in the cure of disease. People suffering from liver trouble imagine that all they have to do is to take something that will physic them. There is more than that in the cure of so serious a disorder as liver trouble.

When a drowsy, clogged up feeling comes on you go to a drug store and ask for a 50 cent or $1 bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take a dose or two and watch results. It will not only clean out the bowels and stimulate the liver, but it will get the blood circulating so that you feel active again, and arouse the functions of the stomach so that your appetite returns and you feel like your old self again. A simple laxative or purgative could not do that. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is not only a wonderful laxative but it has tonic properties, so that, unlike so many other things, instead of leaving you weak and drawn it builds you up and strengthens you.

Use it for occasional or chronic constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, sour stomach, bloated stomach, flatulency, diarrhea, and the dozen and one other ills of the stomach, liver and bowels. It is the greatest of household remedies and no family should be without it because in a family someone at any moment may need such a laxative and then you will appreciate having Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by mail. The company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." The London Democrat, with a picture of Hon. A. G. Patterson, of Pineville, has the following to say: "Mr. Patterson is not a machine politician. He is a self-made man, an able lawyer, a citizen of untarnished reputation, a loyal Kentuckian. He is making a clean, manly fight against the corruption and machine methods that have become amenable to free decent politics in the mountains of Kentucky. He is receiving assurances of support from Republicans who are tired of the present regime all over the district. Mr. Patterson is making an active campaign and will speak in every county before the election."

Several persons were killed and sixteen hurt in a wreck on the Ohio Central line at Sugar Ridge, near Bowling Green, Ohio. A freight train ran into the rear end of an excursion train standing on the main track at the station.

MORGAN MINIATURES

Millionaire's Splendid Gift to the Library of Congress.

The Library of Congress received within the last few days a rare and beautiful gift from J. Pierpont Morgan of New York in the three volume catalogue of his collection of miniatures. The books had been heralded in some of the English periodicals and in cable dispatches from London, which aroused expectant interest in the United States. These messages have not been adequate to describe the actual beauty and sumptuousness of the work.

The books have been compiled by Dr. G. C. Williamson, who is one of the most noted of miniature experts, and the miniatures in the collection have been copied under his supervision at Hempstead. The books were privately printed by Mr. Morgan at the Chiswick Press, and of this edition de luxe only twenty copies were printed, of which the library copy is No. 11. The queen of England and President Roosevelt were the first to receive similar gifts.

The books are covered by plush lined boxes, and they are deposited in the prints division, where they are kept in the special cases designed for treasures.

The books are bound in white vellum with a hand hammered oxidized silver shield in the center of each. The corners and clasps are also silver of the most beautiful design. On these shields and corners are tiny initials and monograms of some of the artists represented in the work. One of the volumes, containing miniatures by Richard Cosway, is ornamented by a heart shaped shield outlined with delicate silver ribbon scroll and vine, a facsimile of Richard Cosway's autograph in blue enamel written across the center. The small initials in the corners are also blue, the whole decoration of this volume being lighter in design.

Of the two others one is decorated in the French style of the seventeenth century, and the third is copied from a mediaeval volume in the Vatican library.

Two more volumes are to be added, and it is expected two years will be required to complete the work.

VARSITY CO-ED NINE.

Michigan University Puts Baseball on Required List For Girls.

It may not be many years before the men of the University of Michigan will have to meet the co-eds on the diamond to see which nine shall have the honor of representing the university in contests with other institutions, says an Ann Arbor (Mich.) dispatch.

Hereafter every first year girl who is not excused for some good reason will be required to play baseball on the new athletic field recently completed for exclusive use of the women students.

In addition to baseball there will be outdoor basket ball and cross country walks, these sports supplementing the regular work in the Barbour gymnasium.

Case of Curing a Leper.

The health officer at Wellington, N. Z., has sanctioned the discharge of a Maori leper after eighteen months' confinement in the lazaretto. It is stated that the leper was cured by a treatment consisting of injections of a culture of the leprosy bacillus invented by Professor Deycke of Constantinople. Other sufferers from the disease who are undergoing the treatment have greatly improved.

Big Yield of Apples on Small Orchard. As an illustration of what can be done by suitable cultivation, pruning and spraying, E. F. Stephens of Crete, Neb., has this season picked 310 bushels of Grimes' Golden Pippin apples from a little less than two-fifths of an acre or at the rate of 175 bushels of apples per acre.

Bicycle For Blind People.

An Englishman has invented a bicycle for the blind. In reality it is a multicycle, carrying twelve riders, led by a seeing person, who does the steering.

Mrs. Harry Thompson, a sister of the late Thomas E. Moss, of Paducah, former Attorney General died at the home of her brother-in-law, Capt. Thomas G. Poore, at Frankfort. She was about 70 years of age.
